OUTLAW RETURNS TO OLD LIFE OF CRIME

Henry Starr, Captured at Bouse Five Years Ago, Is Now Wanted for Bank Robberies in Two States

Henry Starr, outlaw and bank robber, who was released from the Colorado state prison last winter on parole, has gone back to the old life, and is now wanted by the authorities of Oklahoma and Arkansas for robbing a string of five banks in those states.

Starr was arrested at Bouse, Arizona, in 1909 by the officers of Maricopa and Yuma counties for robbing a bank at Amity, Colorado, and sent to the penitentiary on an indeterminate sentence of from seven to 25 years. Released last winter on parole, he went to Holly, in the same state, where he opened a fine cafe which he conducted for several months. He then traveled over the state, playing poker for a living, and is said to have made several large winnings. A few months ago he disappeared and the bank robberies in Oklahoma and Arkansas amounting to $20,000 were the sequel.

Starr's life before his incarceration in Colorado was a continuous record of crime, and he often declared that if ever he returned to the old life he would never be taken alive. Since the bank robberies he and a woman companion have been traced to New York and it is believed that he has made his escape to some foreign country.

MRS. L. D. ROUSSEAU

Resolutions of Respect and Condolence on Her Death

We, the undersigned, official members, in behalf of the entire Cartwright Methodist church, of which Mrs. Rousseau was so faithful and loyal a member, desire to thus express our appreciation of her many virtues and our deep sorrow at her untimely departure from our midst.

In the promotion of Mrs. Rousseau to higher honors and labors in the heavenly kingdom, we feel that we have all lost a tender, considerate friend, and the church a zealous and earnest worker for the cause of Christ and humanity. Everyone in the church and community, from the least to the greatest, feels a keen personal bereavement in her going.

We take this opportunity to offer to our friends and neighbors, the family of the deceased, our sincere sympathy and our affectionate condolence in their hours of grief and pain. May the Divine Friend, who alone can comfort the broken-hearted, soothe their anguish and inspire their hearts with the blessed hope of life and immortality in the "land of the unsetting sun."

It is the expressed wish and desire of this congregation that these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family, a copy published in the city papers, and a copy sent to the Pacific Methodist Advocate.

(Signed) Joel Frank Hedgcock, pastor; Warren Dille, S. S. Superintendent; Orla Anderson, President Epworth League; Mrs. M. H. Rogers, Secretary Woman's Missionary Society; J. A. Higgins, Secretary Board of Stewards.

THE WEEK AT THE SAN MARCOS

J. C. McDonald of Kansas City, who is stopping at the San Marcos has been afforded an experience not often included in a tourist hotel's list of "Things to Do." On Thursday of last week he went with Messrs Peabody and Edwards, who have had charge of the ostrich drive from the Pan-American Ostrich farm to Chandler. He accompanied the drivers on the first drive, and is now out with the "expeditionary force" which are rounding up the sixty birds that escaped from the first bunch in the bottom of Salt River.

The round-up will probably be completed Saturday, when they will be joined by 100 more birds from the Pan-American for Chandler.

C. H. Edwards and P. M. Gallaher of Santa Barbara, touring by motor from California to Elephant Butte, were house guests of the San Marcos Saturday.

Mrs. E. P. Telford, of the editorial staff of the Delinquent and Prof. and Mrs. Evans, of the Evans school, were guests of Dr. A. J. Chandler, at dinner Saturday.

A party consisting of Miss Gertrude Crockett, Dr. L. C. Gonzales of Bisbee and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Polson of Naco, spent a day at the San Marcos while returning by auto from the fair to Bisbee.

H. W. Asbury was host to a party of five at the hotel on Sunday.

On the same day Power Conway of Phoenix entertained at dinner Mrs. Helena Reed of Chicago, Miss Nell Conway, H. D. Marshall and R. J. Reed of Phoenix.

Two prominent cotton men, C. S. Scottfield of Lanham, Md., and Argyle McLochin of Victoria, Texas, with E. E. Hudson of Saco and Jos R. Loftus of Chandler, formed a dinner party Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blum, C. W. Fuller, F. A. Emery of New York, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Halstead of Phoenix, Wm. Healey of Rehoboth, Mass., and Stanley Tuck formed a house party at the San Marcos Saturday. The evening's entertainment was contributed to by Mr. Tuck's splendid piano solos.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Lewis, W. J. Lewis, Miss Ruth Phelps and Lyman Armstrong were San Marcos guests on Wednesday.

Miss Sarah Coleman Brock, and maid of Philadelphia, and Miss Katherine Grittinger of Lebanon, Pa., are at the San Marcos for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Ross and children and Miss Camella Ellinwood spent Monday at the San Marcos on their return trip from the fair to Bisbee.

Among recent arrivals at the San Marcos are Mrs. W. F. Brugman and Miss Vega Brugman, Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Fagerburg and Miss Louis Nelson, Prescott, W. H. Forbes and G. W. Knight, El Paso, Jack Tebbets and Harry Thompson, Phoenix, T. H. Sutton, Los Angeles; L. M. Elder, Prescott; Mrs. Dermont, Williams, A. N. Mayfield, C. C. Moor, L. R. McPeak, J. P. Barker, J. J. Quinn and Miss Sutherland, Phoenix.

THANKSGIVING

"OUR NATIONAL BIRDS"

May one give us peace in all our states; the other a piece for all our plates.

Thanksgiving is only a few days away. Possibly you haven't bought your winter suit or overcoat yet!

Perhaps you need a new hat, a pair of shoes, or some fresh toggery!

There will be church services, the football game, feasting, family reunions, and a good time all 'round. We've prepared for the event by offering splendid values for your outfitting.
